

The Abbey Mill

A watermill on the Holy Brook for nearly 900 years

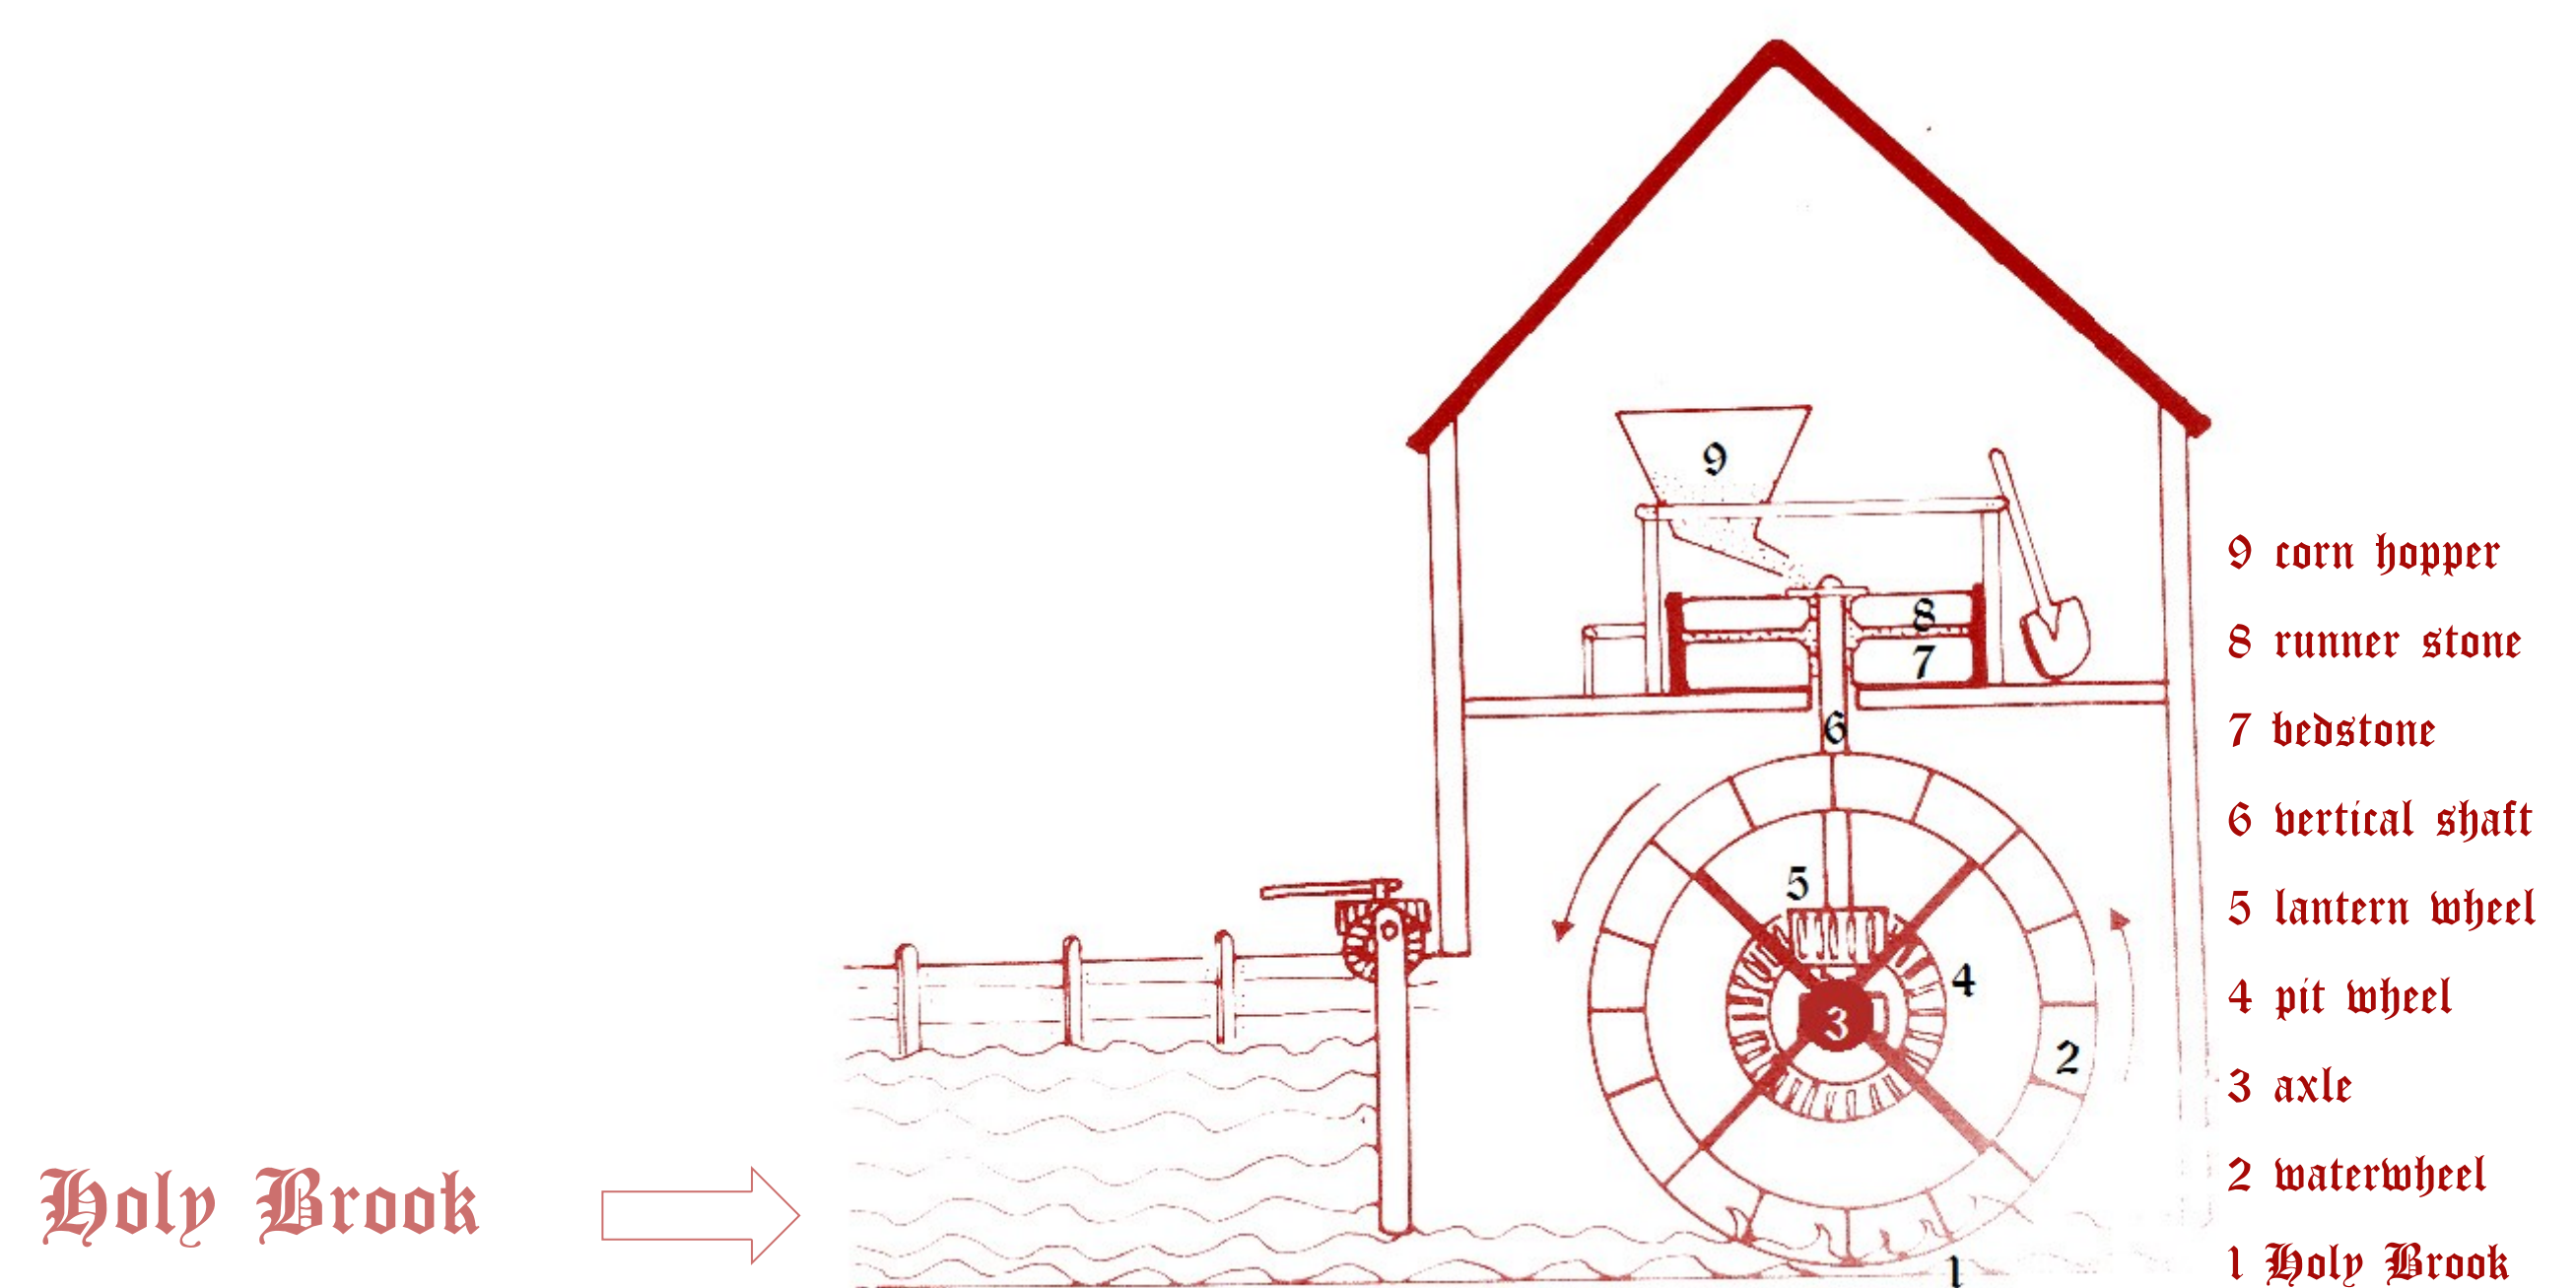

The Early Abbey Waterfront
where the Holy Brook meets the Kennet

Two wheels were installed in the mid 1800s—more power was needed to grind fine flour for biscuits

HUNTLEY & PALMERS
ESTD 1841

In 1959 the mill stopped work. Now you can just see the old arches over the Holy Brook dwarfed by the Blade.

